

What is an apostille?

The object of an apostille is to “abolish the requirement of diplomatic or consular legalization for foreign public documents”.